

*men · tor an influential sponsor or supporter;
advisor in intent, purpose, spirit, passion.*

Sometimes all it takes is a different vantage point or a nudge from someone who has been there...

As a Career Coach with Futures for Kids
you can be the difference for students interested in your experiences.

Futures for Kids (F4K) uses technology to connect students in North Carolina with virtual mentors who can provide the relevance and the motivation students need to stay in school and succeed. It only takes a few minutes a week and everything is online, so you can respond to the students' questions any time, anywhere. It's that easy!

Share your experience and passion with students across North Carolina who are trying to find their own career path.
It could be the most influential 15 minutes of your week.
